

MÄURER & WIRTZ - TABAC ORIGINAL - EST. 1959

Opening on a characteristically Mäurer & Wirtz citrus burst reminiscent of 4711 with a bergamot & lime head touched by a petitgrain bitterness. Notes of jasmine lead us to the overtly floral heart, which features a bouquet of lavender, chamomile and carnations spiced up with pepper. Oak notes draw out the base of sandalwood and vetiver with a long amber rose finish evocative of tallow soap.

FRAGRANCE FAMILY: Floral Aldehyde
CONCENTRATION: EAU DE COLOGNE

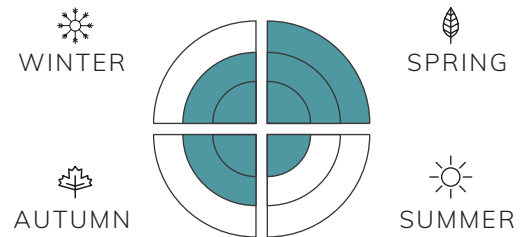

“ I like the citrus zest and soapy floral character.

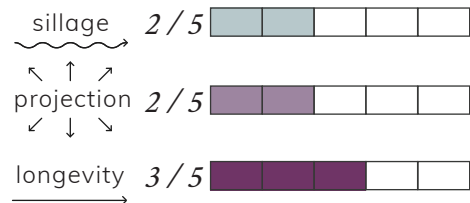

Too floral, fades away and smells like old ladies' soap.”

SCORE & CONCLUSION

Tabac is caught somewhere between a traditional eau de cologne and a classically woody aromatic fragrance. Whilst some may find the overt & soapy floral notes off-putting, others may relish this unique blend that was well before its time as a masculine fragrance in 1959.
