

DUNHILL - DESIRE SILVER - EST. 2015

Unlike its peers, Silver is a far more restrained fragrance that focuses on modest cleanliness rather than touting powerful and heady aromas. Opening with a wispy citrus and lavender head, it follows with calone and wisteria with a hint of cardamon spice. Eventually, it reveals an ambergris base that's supported by a touch of birch and vetiver.

SCORE & CONCLUSION

The journey from Desire Red to Black has been a crescendo of aromas and accords. Therefore, Silver can be regarded as either an anti-climax or a welcome reprieve. In either case, it's a clean and soapy fragrance that offers an understated experience for a modest workplace.
